About us

A PACIFIC NW PASSION

The Songbird Homes name takes its inspiration from a deep appreciation for birdwatching and a true love of nature in the Pacific Northwest. This influence can be found in everything from our home's paint color choices to the naming of our neighborhoods.

We employ an experienced staff of project managers who carefully and thoroughly oversee the work, ensuring that it’s done correctly, in a timely and efficient manner.

Our goal is to continually expand our business and reputation through building high-quality, beautiful homes and communities that our homeowners are proud to live in.
